Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claim 1 is allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claim 1 is allowable over prior art because the claimed invention is not taught or render obvious by the prior art of record. The prior art of record fails to teach or suggest, alone or in combination "(e) Translating phone number result list into a format that is compatible with a wireless messaging standard; (f) Transmitting the translated result list through a wireless messaging system back to the requesting customer's wireless messaging device; (g) Enabling the receiving message device to automatically callback the directory listing provider requesting a telephone referral; (i) Receiving the message phone callback and authenticating the caller; (j) Correlating the callback to a previous request and result set; (k) Transferring the callback phone call to the corresponding telephone referral number; (l) Initiating a business transaction to generate billing and revenue transactions for the paid referral".

Burnett (U.S. Pub: 2002/0087408) discloses a method (fig. 8) Of sharing directory listings (paragraph 0370) via a wireless messaging system in a distributed environment using a computer network (fig. 7) comprising: (a) Maintaining a database including a plurality of directory listings (0375), wherein each listing is associated with a referral phone number (paragraph 0385), at least one search term and a dynamic controllable index (paragraph 0309 and paragraph 0375); (b) Receiving a directory assistance request in the form of a keyword from the customer (paragraph 0304 through paragraph 0345 and paragraph 375); (c) Identifying the directory listings having keyword terms generating a match with the request (paragraph 0304 through paragraph 0345 and paragraph 375); (d) Ordering the identified directory listings into a phone number result list in accordance with the values of some controllable index for the identified directory listings (paragraph 0385).

Anderson et al. (U.S. Pub: 2004/0030689) discloses a system for selectively presenting database results in a information retrieval system. Matsumoto (U.S. Patent 6446,043) discloses a communication parameter search apparatus. None of the prior art discussed above teaches applicants claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
